

Adventures in Tuscany

This is a short chronicle of my visit to Italy. Click on the thumbnails to see a larger view of each photograph. Enjoy!

Pozzarello

The house we stayed in was called Pozzarello and it was built around the year 1200 as the home of the gardener who tended the grounds of the adjacent castle. The thick walls kept us nice and cool inside, despite the blistering mid-day heat. This is the view from our bedroom window.

The Tuscan Countryside

This is the scene on the way to Montalcino (all roads lead to Montalcino!). It looks a lot like the scene on the way to Sienna, and the scene on the way to the grocery store. We were surrounded by beautiful countryside for most of our travels.

Sienna

The closest city to our villa was Sienna, about 30 minutes away. We spent many days exploring the steep and crooked streets, sampling the local cuisine at outdoor restaurants, and stopping in the dark and echoey Duomo to escape the sun.
